Ages 8 - 12, June 18 – 29, 2012

Our summer theatre day camp for children between the ages of 8 and 12 will be held weekdays, Monday, June 18 through Friday, June 29, 10 am – 3 pm. For $325 tuition, each camper will experience a quality theatre education culminating in the staging of their own production. They'll enjoy backstage tours during actual rehearsals and receive two tickets to a summer performance plus a camp tee shirt.

FREE performance on Friday, June 29, 2012

NEW THIS YEAR TEEN'S THEATRE CAMP

July 9 – 20, 2012

You asked for it! Now it is here! A summer theater camp for teens ages 13 and up! For $325 tuition, camp will be from 10 am – 4 pm Monday through Friday. This will not be your normal theater camp experience. This session will focus on character development with an emphasis on fine-tuning acting technique. Campers will learn how to develop the subtleties and motivations of what makes a compelling character. Activities will include script study, both long and short form improvisation, as well as techniques you would normally find at the university level. This camp is for the student looking to take their performance to the next level!

Enrollment is limited for both camps and acceptance is on a first-come, first-served basis. A limited number of scholarships are also available. Call 717-352-2164 or 888-805-7056 for more information or to enroll.

FREE performance on Friday July 20, 2012
